

SEAN KAMMERER

Sean Kammerer begins his second year of coaching at St. Thomas Aquinas College after a successful playing career at Kellenberg Memorial High School in Uniondale, NY. Kammerer served as a three year captain, four year starter, and won All Long Island as a catcher his senior year. After high school, Sean went on to play one year at Queens College (Div. II) where he started as a freshman. He later transferred to Sacred Heart University (Div. I) where he started and led the NEC (Northeast Conference) in throw outs as a sophomore and hit .303 as a junior. After college, Sean served as the hitting coach at Suffolk County Community College. He helped lead the team to a World Series bid for the second year in a row at the Division III Junior College World Series. After SCCC, he signed an international professional contract with Sweden's Tranas Baseball Club, finishing second in the league in hitting (.507). Upon his return to the U.S., Sean served as an assistant coach on the St. Joseph's College (Patchogue) coaching staff. Kammerer founded LINY Baseball Club in March of 2013. He has spent the last four years coaching amateur baseball in and around Long Island, helping several Long Islanders reach their goal of playing college baseball.

FRANK HAGGERTY

Frank Haggerty comes from a family with a rich heritage and a love of lacrosse. Frank was a four year starter for the Long Beach High School Marines between 1974 and 1977. During his high school career, he was selected as an All-Division player his senior year. He played collegiality at Nassau Community College, where he was a National Champion in 1978. After college, Frank began working at the Long Beach Recreation Center where he started the Youth Lacrosse Program in 1991 for boys age 7 through 12. He has coached youth and high school for over 30 years, including over 20 as a head coach and Varsity assistant coach. During his high school coaching career, he was twice awarded Coach of the Year by the Nassau County Coaches Association in 2002 and 2006. In 2006, his Junior Varsity team recorded a record of 16 – 0 becoming the only undefeated high school lacrosse team in Long Beach High School history. Coach Haggerty was also nominated to coach the East vs. West Senior All-Star Game in 2001 and again in 2007. Throughout his coaching career, Frank was also asked to instruct at Hofstra's Lacrosse Camp with Coach John Danowski and Jim McAlevey's All American Camp in Turnbull, Massachusetts. Coach Haggerty has had the pleasure of working with many outstanding high school, college and professional players over the past 20 years. These players have achieved numerous accolades across the various levels.

In addition to our Sport Directors, we will also have various professional, collegiate and high school athletes and coaches working with our young athletes. Special guest speakers will also be stopping by throughout the summer.
